

Creando Oportunidades

BBVA, S.A. appoint Mario Pardo Bayona as BBVA Colombia Country Manager, in replacement of Oscar Cabrera Izquierdo. The appointment will be presented to the Board of Directors for its approval, and that depends on the authorization of the Superintendencia Financiera de Colombia (SFC).

Mario Pardo Bayona joined BBVA in 2008 after almost a decade of experience in some of the world most important investment banks. Since then, he has worked at M&A within the Corporate and Investment Banking area (CIB), first in Spain, then as global responsible, and finally as Global Client Coverage, before taking charge as Head of Strategy and Transformation for CIB. Since 2017, Mario Pardo Bayona was Head of Enterprise Clients, position that corresponded to Client Solutions team, in which he has been responsible for the global corporate banking business, including the strategy, models, solutions and channels for the clients of the group banks.

Oscar Cabrera Izquierdo closes a brilliant phase of almost thirty years at BBVA and ten as Country Manager of BBVA Colombia. Under the command of Oscar Cabrera Izquierdo, BBVA Colombia made an enormous progress, becoming a referent in transformation for the country financial industry. BBVA gratefully thanks Oscar Cabrera Izquierdo for his enormous contribution to the Group during his successful career and wishes Mario Pardo Bayona the biggest success during this new phase.
